ARTICLE I.

COUNCIL OF CO-OWNERS

The Developer, Regency Ventures, Inc., and all of the co-owners of units within this condominium project shall constitute the Council of Co-Owners.

The purpose of the Council of Co-Owners is to administer, on a nonprofit basis, and through an Administrative Board, the Condominiums; to elect the Administrative Board; to amend and supplement from time to time these By-Laws and the system of Administration; and to do and perform any and all other things, matters, or acts required by or permitted by the Co-Owners as an assembly or council under the Horizontal Property Act of the State of Tennessee.

ARTICLE II.

MEETINGS AND VOTING RIGHTS OF CO-OWNERS

Section 1. Eligibility. The owner or owners of a unit, who have become such in compliance with all of the requirements and conditions precedent contained in the Master Deed, including these By-Laws, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all meetings of the Council of Co-Owners.

Section 2. Voting Rights. The owner or owners of a unit shall be entitled to one vote at all meetings of the Council of Co-Owners. Where two or more persons own a unit, the vote allocated to that unit shall be cast by the one authorized by such two or more owners. Where only one of two or more owners of a unit is present in person at a meeting, only one shall be entitled to cast the vote with respect to that unit. Where one person or group of persons owns more than one unit, such person or group shall be entitled to cast one vote for each unit owned. The Developer, Regency Ventures, Inc., shall be an owner or owners of unsold or undeveloped units and shall be entitled to three (3) votes for each unit owned by the Developer until seventy-five percent (75%) of the forty-eight (48) planned units have been sold. At such time that seventy-five percent (75%) of the units are sold (i.e. 36 units), Regency Ventures, Inc. shall have only one (1) vote as a co-owner for purposes of this document.

Section 3. Corporation as Owner. In the event a partnership, trustee, corporation or other entity owns a unit or units, after having complied with all conditions precedent contained in the Master Deed, including these By-Laws, the vote of such may be cast by a partner, trustee or officer of the same or by any person authorized in writing by a partner, trustee or officer thereof, to represent the same.

Section 4. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Proxies, to be valid, shall be in writing for that particular meeting designated therein and any adjournments thereof and shall be filed with the secretary of the meeting prior to voting.

Section 5. Annual Meetings. The first meeting of the Council of Co-Owners shall be held at the condominium at seven (7) o'clock P.M. on the second (2nd) Saturday in June of year 1997, after the sale of the first unit, for the purpose of electing an Administrative Board and of transacting any other business authorized to be transacted by the members; provided, however, that if such day is a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same hour on the next following day. The first Administrative Board will be John Robert Biddle, W. T. Daniels, and Buddy Hawk. The initial or first Administrative Board will serve until December 31, 1998. Subsequent Administrative Boards will be elected at the Annual Meeting to be held on the second Saturday in November, of each year and shall take office on January 1st of each subsequent year.

Section 6. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Council of Co-Owners shall be held whenever called by the President and Secretary of the Administrative Board or by a majority of the Administrative Board, or by the written request of one-third (1/3rd) of the entire number of co-owners. When a special meeting is so called, the Secretary shall mail written notice of the meeting to all co-owners.

Section 7. Notice. Notice shall be given to all co-owners of meetings of co-owners, stating the time, place and purpose of which the meeting is called. Such notice shall be in writing and shall be mailed to each member at his address as it appears on the books of the association or may be mailed or delivered to his unit not less than seven (7) days nor more than fifteen (15) days before the meeting.

Proof of such mailing or delivery may be given by the written statement of the secretary or other person giving the notice. Notice of a meeting may be waived before, at or after the meeting.

Section 8. Quorum. A quorum at any meeting of the Council of Co-Owners shall consist of persons entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes of the entire number of unit co-owners. The affirmative vote of a majority of co-owners, being more than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of units in attendance, is required to adopt any resolution, elect any director, make any decision or take any action; except that these By-Laws and the system of administration may be modified only in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Section 9. Presiding Officer. The President of the Administrative Board shall preside over all Council meetings; and the Secretary of the Administrative Board shall take and keep the minutes and minute books of all Council meetings, wherein adopted resolutions shall be recorded, and shall serve as Secretary at such meetings.

Section 10. Amendments. The Council of Co-Owners may at any duly called, held and convened meeting, modify or amend the system of administration and these By-Laws for the administration of the Condominiums by the affirmative vote of co-owners representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the total units in the Condominiums project. The said system of administration and these By-Laws, however, may be only so amended in such manner that each one of the parts required by the Code of Tennessee to be within the contents of the

By-Laws, shall always be embodied in the By-Laws. No such modification or amendment of a system of administration or of these By-Laws shall be operative unless and until it is embodied in a written instrument and is recorded in the Register of Deed's Office for Greene County, Tennessee, in the same manner as was the Master Deed and these original By-Laws which are a part of the said Master Deed.

ARTICLE III.

ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

Section 1. Administration. The Administrative Board of R. V. Association, Inc., shall conduct or administer the business affairs and the general common elements of the Association. The Administrative Board shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) persons. Except for the initial members of the Administrative Board, each member of the Administrative Board shall be either the owner of a unit or of an interest therein, or in the event of ownership of a unit by a partnership, trustee, corporation or other entity, a partner, trustee or officer or other designated representative thereof.

Section 2. Election of Administrators. The Council of Co-Owners shall, at their annual meeting, elect the Administrative Board. Each Co-Owner or Co-Owners of a unit shall be entitled to one vote per unit for each of the Administrators to be elected. A majority of co-owners, constituting more than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of units, shall be necessary for the election of an administrator. Each co-owner or co-owners of a unit, on each ballot, is required to cast his vote for as many persons as there are Administrators to be elected. The Developer, Regency Ventures, Inc., for each unsold condominium and/or unit it owns will have three (3) votes until seventy-five percent (75%) of all forty-eight units ^{Two} 31.5 are sold.

Section 3. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Administrative Board may be filled until the date of the next annual meeting by the remaining administrators.

Section 4. Term. The term of each administrator's service shall extend until the next annual meeting of the Council of Co-Owners and thereafter until his successor is duly elected by the Council of Co-Owners and qualified or until he is removed in the manner elsewhere provided, except no Administrator shall serve more than two (2) successive terms of two (2) years each.

Section 5. Organization Meeting. The organization meeting of a newly elected Administrative Board shall be held within one (1) week of their election at such place and time as shall be fixed by the administrators at the meeting at which they were elected, and no further notice of the organization meeting shall be necessary, providing a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Administrative Board may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the Board. Notice of regular meetings shall be given to each Administrator personally or by mail, telephone, or facsimile at least three (3) days prior to the day named for such meeting unless such notice is waived.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President and must be called by the Secretary at the written request of a majority of the members of the Board. Not less than three (3) days' notice of the meeting shall be given, personally or by mail, telephone or facsimile, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

Section 8. Waiver of Notice. Any Administrator may waive notice of a meeting before, at or after the meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice.

Section 9. Quorum. A quorum at Administrators' meetings shall consist of the Administrators entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire Board. The acts of the Board approved by a majority of votes present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the Administrative Board except as specifically otherwise provided in the Master Deed or elsewhere in these By-Laws. If, at any meeting of the Administrative Board, there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. At an adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 10. Presiding Officer. The President of the Administrative Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board; the Secretary of the Administrative Board shall serve as secretary of all meetings of the Board. In the absence of either, the Board shall designate one of their number to preside or to serve as Secretary, as the case may be.

Section 11. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to any member of the Board or to any officer for services as such. Any member of the Board or any officer may be reimbursed for expenses actually incurred by him, upon approval by the Board.

Section 12. Removal. Any member of the Board may be removed and relieved of duty as such by the vote of co-owners representing a majority of the total of units at any regular or special meeting duly called and convened of the Council of Co-Owners. The vacancy created by such removal may be filled by the Council of Co-Owners at the meeting at which such director was removed.

ARTICLE IV.

The Administrative Board shall elect, from its number:

A. A President, who shall: be the chief administrative officer of the Board; execute contracts and agreements in the name and behalf of the Board when directed by the Board; preside at all meetings and perform such other duties as the chief administrative officer as the Board may, from time to time, direct;

The Treasurer shall maintain the following:

Fidelity Bonds shall be required by the Administrative Board covering all officers and employees of the Board and any agents or managers handling or responsible for funds of the Administrative Board for assessment made of members.

The amount of such bond or bonds shall be determined by the Administrative Board but shall be at least in the amount of the total annual assessments against members for common expenses. Premiums on such bond shall be paid by the Administrative Board from the maintenance fund.

ARTICLE V.

POWERS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

In addition to the rights, powers and duties conferred upon the Administrative Board by the Master Deed, the Horizontal Property Act of Tennessee and by other provisions of these By-Laws and without in anywise limiting the same, the Administrative Board shall have the following additional and cumulative rights, powers, and duties:

ARTICLE VI.

INSURANCE

The insurance which shall be carried on the condominium project shall be governed by the following provision:

Section 1. Authority to Purchase. Except builder risk and other required insurance furnished by Developer during construction, all insurance policies upon the property (except as hereinafter allowed) shall be purchased by the Administrative Board, for the benefit of the unit owners and their respective mortgagees as their interests may appear and shall provide for the issuance of certificates of insurance mortgage endorsements to the holders of mortgages on the units or any of them and unless prohibited by that policy, shall provide that the insurer waives its rights of subrogation as to any claims against unit owners and the Administrative Board. Such policies and endorsements shall be deposited with the Administrative Board or the Insurance Trustee (as hereinafter provided for), who must first acknowledge that the policies and any proceeds thereof will be held in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 2. Unit Owners. Each condominium unit owner may obtain additional insurance, at his own expense, affording coverage upon his personal property, including a condominium unit owners endorsement for improvements and betterments to the unit made or acquired at the expense of the owner and upon that part of the building within the perimeter boundaries of his individual physical unit and for his personal liability and as may be required by law, but all such insurance shall contain the same waiver of subrogation as that referred to in Article VII, 1, hereof (if the same is available) and must be obtained from an insurance company from which the Administrative Board obtains coverage against the same risk, liability, or peril, if the Administrative Board has such coverage.

Section 3. Coverage.

A. Casualty. The condominium project, including all insurable improvements upon the land and all personal property as may be owned by the Administrative Board as trustees for the co-owners, shall be insured in an amount equal to the full replacement value without deduction or allowance for depreciation thereof (exclusive of excavation and foundations) as determined annually by the Administrative Board affording such coverage with the assistance of the insurance company affording such coverage. Such coverage shall afford protection against at least the following:

(1) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by the standard extended coverage endorsements together with coverage for common expenses with respect to condominium units during any periods of repair or reconstruction.

(2) Such other risks as from time to time customarily shall be covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location, and use of the building, including but not limited to vandalism, malicious mischief, windstorm, and water damage and such other insurance as the Administrative Board may determine.

B. Automobile and public liability and property damage in such amounts and in such forms as shall be required by the Administrative Board.

C. Workmen's Compensation policy to meet the requirements of any applicable law.

D. All liability insurance shall contain cross liability endorsements to cover liabilities of the unit owners as a group to unit owner.

E. Such other policies of insurance, including insurance for other risks of similar or dissimilar nature, as are or shall hereafter be considered appropriate by the Administrative Board.

Section 4. Premiums. Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Administrative Board shall be paid by the Administrative Board and charged as common expenses.

Section 5. Purchase of Policy. All insurance policies purchased by the Administrative Board shall be for the benefit of the Administrative Board and the unit owners and their mortgagees as their respective interest may appear and shall provide that all proceeds payable as a result of casualty losses shall be paid to either the Administrative Board or, if deemed desirable, to a national bank at Greeneville, Tennessee, as Insurance Trustee. The Administrative Board of such bank trustees is herein referred to as the Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee (unless the Administrative Board being the same) shall not be liable for payment of premiums nor for the renewal of the policies nor for the sufficiency of coverage nor for the form or contents of the policies nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The sole duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and to hold the same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein and for the benefit of the unit owners, their respective mortgagees and the Administrative

Board, in the following shares, but such shares need not be set forth upon the records of the Insurance Trustee.

A. Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to the common elements - - that percentage interest in common elements of each unit owner and his mortgagee, if any, which is set forth in the Master Deed.

B. Units. Proceeds on account of units shall be held in the following undivided shares.

(1) Partial destruction when the building is to be restored - For the owners of damage suffered by each damaged unit. Upon the request of the Insurance Trustee, the Administrative Board shall certify to the Insurance Trustee the appropriate portions as aforesaid, and each unit owner shall be bound by the Insurance Trustee and may rely upon such certificate.

(2) Total destruction of the condominium or building or where the building is not to be restored for all unit owners, the share of each being the percentage interest in common elements as set forth in the Master Deed.

C. Mortgages. In the event a mortgage endorsement has been issued as to a unit, the share of the unit owner shall be held in trust for the mortgage and the unit owners as their interest may appear.

Section 6. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners after first paying or making provision for the payment of the expense of the Insurance Trustee in the following manner:

A. Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds were paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, all remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a unit and may be enforced by him.

B. Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a unit and may be enforced by law.

C. Certificate. In making distribution to unit owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Administrative Board as to the names of the unit owners and their respective shares of the distribution. Upon request of the Insurance Trustee, the Administrative Board forthwith shall deliver such certificate.

D. Payments. The Insurance Trustee shall make payments and disbursements of the insurance proceeds during the course of reconstruction upon the presentation of certificates requesting payments executed by the Administrative Board and upon certificates of the supervising architect or engineer that reconstruction or repair has progressed to the extent of the payment or partial payment certified for payment.

Section 7. No Subrogation. Unless the insurance policy shall expressly prohibit a waiver of subrogation or shall be rendered invalid by an agreement providing for a waiver of subrogation, neither the co-owners, their mortgagee, nor the Administrative Board, nor the insurers shall have any right of action against any other co-owner or the Administrative Board, it being the intention of this provision that all insurance carried for the use and benefit of any unit owner shall inure to protect every other unit owner and the Administrative Board, including the family, servants, agents, invitees, and guests of each.

Section 8. Limitations. Any insurance obtained pursuant to the requirements of this Article shall be subject to the following provisions:

A. All policies shall be written with a company or companies licensed to do business in the State of Tennessee and holding a rating acceptable to said mortgagee.

B. All policies shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to any and all insureds named thereon, including any and all mortgagees of the condominium project.

ARTICLE VII.

RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR OF CASUALTY DAMAGE

If the whole or any part of the common elements shall be damaged by fire, casualty, or any other disaster, the determination of whether or not to reconstruct or repair and upon whether or not to apply the insurance indemnity to reconstruct or repair shall be made as follows:

Section 1. Partial Destruction Where Two-Thirds of the Condominium Building is Damaged or Destroyed. In the event two-thirds (2/3) or less of the total number of units are destroyed or rendered untenable, the buildings shall be reconstructed and repaired, and the entire insurance indemnity and insurance proceeds shall be applied to that end.

Section 2. Destruction of the Whole or More than Two-Thirds of the Building. In the event that all the condominium buildings are destroyed or more than two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of units in the buildings be rendered untenable, then the buildings shall not be reconstructed unless ninety percent (90%) of the owners agree to said reconstruction at a meeting of the Council of Co-Owners to be called and held after such destruction or after the rendering of more than two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of units untenable. In the event of the provisions of this subparagraph becoming operative, the insurance indemnity and all insurance funds shall be distributed to the co-owners and to their respective mortgagees in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article VII of these By-Laws.

Section 3. Insufficient Insurance. Where reconstruction or repair is required under the provisions of subparagraph 1 above (Partial Destruction) and where the buildings are not insured or where the insurance indemnity is insufficient to cover the cost of reconstruction or repair, the new building costs shall be paid by all the co-owners directly affected by the damage, in proportion to their respective percentage interest in the common elements as set forth in Article IV of the Master Deed; and if any one or more of those composing the minority shall refuse to make such payment, the majority may proceed with the reconstruction at the expense of all the co-owners benefited thereby, upon proper resolution setting forth the circumstances of the case and the cost of the works, with the intervention of the Council of Co-Owners. The provisions of this section may be changed by unanimous resolution of the parties concerned, adopted subsequent to the date of which the fire or other disaster occurred.

Each co-owner's share of the expenses and new building costs for such reconstruction and repair shall be a lien upon his unit in the same manner and enforceable by the same means as set forth in the Master Deed with respect to a maintenance fund assessment.

Section 4. Plans. Any such reconstruction or repair shall be substantially in accordance with the original plans and specifications.

Section 5. Encroachments. Encroachments upon or in favor of units which may be created as a result of such reconstruction or repair shall not constitute a claim or basis of a proceeding or action by the unit owner upon whose property such encroachments exist, provided that such reconstruction was either substantially in accordance with the original plans and specifications or as the building was originally constructed. Such encroachments shall be allowed to continue in existence for so long as the buildings stand.

Section 6. Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one unit for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the unit owner, then the unit owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances, the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Administrative Board.

Section 7. Estimate of Costs. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Administrative Board has the responsibility of maintenance and repair, the Administrative Board shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of placing the damaged property in condition as good as before the casualty. Such costs may include professional fees and premiums for such bonds as the Administrative Board desires.

Section 8. When damage is to both common elements and units, the insurance proceeds shall be applied first to the cost of repairing the common elements and the balance to the unit in the shares above stated.

Section 9. Insurance Adjustments. Each unit owner shall be deemed to have delegated to the Administrative Board his right to adjust with insurance companies all losses under policies purchased by the Administrative Board, except in any case where the damage is restricted to one unit, subject to the rights of mortgagees of such unit owners.

ARTICLE VIII.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Members of the Council of Co-Owners shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each unit interest owned by them. Developer shall be entitled to three (3) votes for each unit owned and unsold until such time as seventy-five percent (75%) of the forty-eight (48) units are sold and transferred or until January 31, 2005, whichever occurs last.

ARTICLE IX

CONSTRUCTION

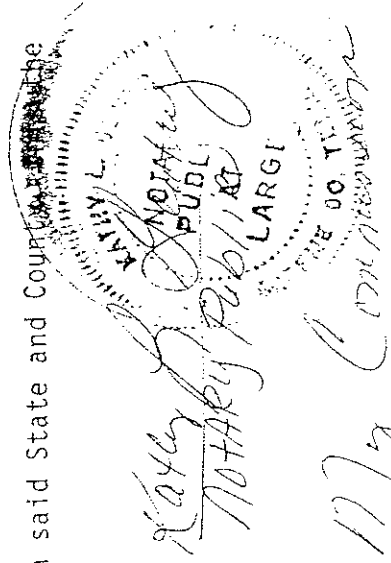

These By-Laws are intended to be read in conjunction with the Master Deed, and if there is any conflict between the By-Laws and the said Master Deed, the Master Deed shall control.
