

Zoning Information – 8 Condo’s & 16 Acre Development Tract

According to the City of Maryville Planning Department, the subject property is zoned as follows:

Residential District (City of Maryville):

The land use and intensity of the area is low density residential. Some mix of building types may be included, e.g., two-family, three-family and four-family dwelling units. Supplementary and complementary uses may exist in the area, such as recreation areas, schools, churches, and community centers.